

DRUMOIG WILDLIFE QUIZ – 12 February 2019 – Quiz 6

1.	b) 117 miles (According to Wikepedia and Primary Facts) Encyclopaedia Britannica about 120mls It is the longest river in Scotland and the seventh longest in the UK. It originates in western Scotland on the slopes of Ben Lui and flows through Loch Tay starting at Killin and leaving at Kenmore. At its mouth the Firth of Tay, Dundee it is nearly 2 miles wide and can carry more water that the Thames and the Severn combined.	1
2.	a) Common tern b) Gannet c) Razorbill	1 1 1
3.	A calf	1
4.	Otter	1
5.	Mussels (also cockles on the coast and mainly worms inland.	1
6.	a) Sea Buckthorn b) Samphire c) Pink Sea Thrift	1 1 1
7.	Water Vole	1
8.	b) 117 miles (According to the Fife Coast and Countryside Trust website) The Fife Coastal Path runs from the Forth Estuary in the south, to the Tay Estuary in the north and	1
9.	Up to 15 minutes	1
10.	Where possible, the birds excavate a nesting burrow into the soil. Sometimes they will make use of Manx shearwater or rabbit burrows. Where burrowing is not possible, the bird do nest under boulders or in cracks and cavities in cliffs.	1

Total 14